Making the World Your Classroom

Using real-time culture as a springboard for comprehensible input

The COACH Team is preparing a great program that will include:

- Turning travel experiences into lessons
- Using authentic materials to teach language and culture
- Teaching with Internet sources that ignite interest in the target culture
- Using world events to promote language learning
- Exploring culture through independent research and participation

All strategies and activities are designed to engage students in active learning and align curriculum with state and national world language standards.
